

Never Once

Matt Redman

|  |   |
|--|---|
| Standing on this mountaintopLooking just how far we've comeKnowing that for every stepYou were with us Kneeling on this battle groundSeeing just how much You've doneKnowing every victoryIs Your power in us Scars and struggles on the wayBut with joy our hearts can sayYes, our hearts can say Never once did we ever walk aloneNever once did You leave us on our ownYou are faithful, God, You are faithful Never once did we ever walk aloneNever once did You leave us on our ownYou are faithful, God, You are faithfulYou are faithful, God, You are faithful Scars and struggles on the wayBut with joy our hearts can sayNever once did we ever walk aloneCarried by Your constant graceHeld within Your perfect peaceNever once, no, we never walk alone Never once did we ever walk aloneNever once did You leave us on our ownYou are faithful, God, You are faithful Every step we are breathing in Your graceEvermore we'll be breathing out Your praiseYou are faithful, God, You are faithfulYou are faithful, God, You are faithful | = Megan from Iran and her whole family are going to church and seeking the God of grace.= From brain tumor, through surgery, recovery and ending in ISI ministry to FLC = Falling on my knees at church this Sunday as I saw the Iranian Christians embracing Megan and the light on her face. I was severely broken after my brain tumor. Whatever I am now is just Him. = Lot of struggle in my recovery just within myself. Lots of doubts and discouragement plagued me starting back in ministry. = Such a promise! Paraclete. Most every night for 2 years I told God- what have You allowed to happen to me? Why didn't I just die? = Not only has God walked with me, my wife and family, friends and the precious family of God have walked with and believed in me that I still could be a vessel of honorable use. = Yes. Always scars and struggles to win a heart to the Lord. But, amen, what a joy to see when a person from a country where Jesus is forbidden sees and realizes this is an unknown God of immense love and mercy. I easily could have given up a year earlier without Him. = Amen and amen. I will be forever joyous to sing this in heaven knowing just how true these words are! = Grace, grace, wonderful grace! Who am I but a broken, foul vessel with the honor of sharing Christ? Grace to me has now turned into my infinite praise to Him! Hallelujah! |
|--|---|