

God on Trial

How would God go about proving His existence in an American courtroom using the Rules of Evidence?

Court: God you are charged with the crime of not existing. What is your plea?

God: Not guilty. By the way, I will be judging you one day.

Testimony

- Currently 2.4 billion available
- Personal

Documentary

- Bible most produced and read document of all time
- Reliability of Bible unrivaled in all historical documents

Real

- All of creation
- Creation cycles of sustaining
- The Jews
- Jesus
- Historical
- Archaeological

Digital

- Google Jesus and see!
- Mathematical probability models for creation

Exculpatory

- Non-christian, atheistic scientist conclusions
- Einstein
- Science. There was a beginning and natural laws established because God created them
- Documented miracles
- Our conscience

Inculpatory

- Evil
- War
- Famine
- Injustice
- Science. Everything came about and works by natural laws
- Hillary

Demonstrative

- Shroud of Turin :)
- Sistine Chapel
- Christ the Redeemer statue. Brazil
- Catholic stuff all over the world
- Gideon's Bible. Hotels

Eyewitness

- 12 Disciples
- Paul
- The 500
- The kid who died for awhile and went to heaven

Genetic

- We are made in the image of God
- A trinity. Body, soul, spirit

Lies

- Satan* is the father of lies

* All accusations against the client originate from him and therefore his testimony is ruled inadmissible

Court: It is now up to you, the jury, to decide if the defendant is guilty, beyond a reasonable doubt, of not existing. A word of warning. If you do find Him guilty of not existing and He really does exist you are likely to go to hell.

Jury: TBD. YOU decide!